*Notification No. D*2. Dis. 188—28-29, dated 7—17*th November* 1928.

Under section 523, Criminal Procedure Code, it is hereby notified for the information of the public that a crowbar being the property in C C No. 119 of 27-28 on the file of the Bench Court, Bowringpet, now lying in the same Court without being claimed will be sold by public auction, at the Taluk Office, Bowringpet, if no claim of it is preferred within six months from the date of this notification.

Official Memorandum No. D.2 Dis. 199—28-29, dated 7—17*th November* 1928.

Under condition 6 of the "G" permit issued under Rule 27 of the Mysore Motor Vehicle Rules, 1924, the District Superintendents of Police of Kolar and Kolar Gold Fields are hereby authorised to periodically (i.e., once in three months) inspect the motor buses plying for hire, in their respective jurisdiction in the district and Kolar Gold Fields area. This does not debar the Superintendent of Industries, Bangalore from examining the buses taken to him for inspection and the present arrangement is made only with a view to obviate inconvenience felt by some of the motor bus proprietors due to the absence of the Superintendent of Industries from headquarters. The directions as to the fees being credited to Government, however applies to inspection conducted by all officers of Government, whether they are Superintendent of Industries or are appointed by the undersigned.
